

Open Position for Project Manager drinking water plants in Northern Macedonia

FELA Planungs AG a Swiss based General contractor is looking for his turnkey project in Northern part of North Macedonia for a Civil or and Mechanical engineer with experience in drinking water civil and hydraulics and mechanical works.

The project is complex from drinking water wells, water pipelines from lake, drinking water treatment plant, solar power plant 250 kW, all civil works for manholes, braking chambers WTP Filter and Admin building. Power supply 10kV and Transformer station etc.

The engineer should be a "al-round" engineer with good presentation and professional organizer. His duty is to represent FELA Switzerland in Macedonia. First to act as project coordinator between Swiss based head office, local Macedonian engineering company and local and foreign subcontractors.

Language: High skill in Macedonian, Bulgarian and English

High skill in Coordination, negotiations with local authorities and local contractors

Please send your CV to: hu@fela.ch